IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

Miss Farley Popular.
Miss Rosella Farley, the attractive daughter of Capt. Edwin Farley, who has only recently cast her lot with the Frankfort people and calls the Capital City her home, left Saturday for a visit with friends in Charleston, W. Va. Miss Farley is quite an addition to the young society set in Frankfort, and has been given a royal welcome since coming here to live. —Frankfort notes in Louisville Herald.

Pleasant Occasion.
Mrs. Nannie Johnson, of the Clinton road, delightfully entertained the Lone Oak Woman's Home Mission society yesterday with a strawberry dinner. Those present were: Rev. W. J. Naylor and wife, Marvin Rudolph and wife, of Waxahachie, Texas; Mrs. W. B. McKinney and daughter, Novelle, Mrs. J. S. Ragsdale and daughter, Martha, Mrs. W. A. Middleton and son, Warren, Miss Linnie Sanderson, Mrs. Eddie Pepper, Mrs. R. C. Gore and son, Randolph, Mrs. A. J. Elliott, Mrs. J. H. Rodgers, Mrs. D. N. Futrell and daughters, Mary and Lucile, Mrs. Jane Howard.

Mrs. Emery Goes Abroad.
Mrs. Charles W. Emery will leave next Monday for New York, where she will meet a party of friends and will sail for Europe on the Cunard liner, Monaca. A three months tour of Europe will be made, including all of the principal countries. Before returning the party will attend the Passion play of Oberammergau.

Miss Stewart on "Talking Shop."
The Sunday Magazine section of the Chicago Record-Herald, May 15, contains an article entitled "Talking Shop," by Miss Anna Bird Stewart, formerly of this city. It is decidedly clever and is replete with Miss Stewart's keen appreciation of the humorous in life that makes her so ideal a companion. It is but a promise, however, of the brilliant future that Miss Stewart's friends here expect from her in a literary way. Since leaving Paducah last year when she resigned the chair of History and English in the Paducah High school, she has been in New York studying and doing feature work and special stories for the Sunday papers and magazines.

McClary-Stiles.
A wedding that will be a surprise to many of the friends of the popular couple, was that of Miss Mollie McClary and Harry E. Stiles, last evening at 8:30 o'clock. It was quietly solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waddy Lang, on North Fifth street, in the presence of a limited number of friends. The Rev. W. A. Fite, of the First Christian church, performed the ceremony.
The bride is a popular young business woman of the city and has been stenographer at the News-Democrat office. Mr. Stiles has also been connected with the News-Democrat and is well known here.

NO EXCUSE FOR UGLY FACES.

Blotches, Red Noses and Pimples May Be Quickly Banished.

It is very easy, after all, to be rid of unsightly pimples, inflamed skin, blotches, red noses, hives, fever blisters and other blemishes, as a few applications of poslam, the new skin remedy will quickly banish these troubles. Being naturally flesh-colored and containing no grease, poslam cannot be detected on the face in the daytime. The actual healing and curing process is accomplished readily and without inconvenience, the skin being restored to its natural color.

Poslam can be had of any pharmacist who handles pure drugs, particularly Gilbert's and R. W. Walker & Co.'s. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the minor troubles mentioned, or in curing ordinary cases of eczema, for which disease it is the accepted specific. Itching stops at once.

Any one who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, can secure by mail free of charge, a supply sufficient to show overnight results in clearing the complexion or removing pimples.

BEAN CLAIMS DAMAGES FROM KELLY AND DOE.
For alleged damages sustained in a horse swap, Elza Bean by his next best friend, H. C. Bean, has filed suit in circuit court against G. W. Kelley and John Doe, two horse traders, for damages. The plaintiff alleged that he is under 21 years old, and that he traded a horse valued at $150 and a buggy, valued at $40, to the horse traders. Later he decided that he was sorry of the trade, and now files suit to recover damages for the two traders keeping his horse for two days.

NEW CAPITOL

WILL BE HANDSOMELY RATED FOR EVENT.

Dedication of Edifice to Be Formally Made at Frankfort June 2.

Frankfort, Ky., May 17.—Every true Kentuckian will look forward to the dedication of the new capitol on June 2 with a heart full of pride, for the capitol building of this grand old commonwealth is one of the finest in the United States and stands as a monument to the honesty and integrity of the people who made it possible.

The capitol commission is composed of Governor A. E. Willson, Treasurer E. Farley, Auditor Frank P. James, Secretary of State Ben L. Bruner and Attorney General Breathitt, and they have arranged the dedication exercises and have asked United States Senator William O. Bradley to deliver the principal address, and short talks will be made by Governor Willson and former Governor J. C. W. Beckham, under whose administration the erection of the capitol was started.

Will Decorate Interior.
Captain Farley and Judge Breathitt have been appointed as a committee in charge of the decoration of the interior of the capitol, and they will display exquisite taste in carrying out their work, as it is their intention to decorate entirely with cut flowers and growing plants, which will enhance the beauty of the building.

They are to be congratulated for disregarding the use of cheap bunting and flags, for the natural beauty of this building should not be marred in any way in decorating.

Governor Willson and the other state officials will receive during the evening in the governor's reception room, while it has not been definitely decided, it is likely that the wives of the state officials will assist in receiving.
